Wonder muse for the crafter By groovykarma The selection chosen by the author to be depicted in this book is a wide range with many items for everyone. I am very pleased with the colored photos and the detailed instructions. Mary Engelbreit has an updated yet homey take on crafts and illustrations. The patterns can be used for sewing, embroidery, quilting and for anyone craft where a template would be used. Suggestions are shown with more than one color template. I am very pleased and found this to be a very reasonable price for all that is included in this book. It is hardcover with a nice color jacket. Patterns are included with detailed directions making it user friendly for every crafter. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Cute? Not. By qltdee I was quite disappointed by this book. The cover photo and those you could see online made it look like a fun purchase. Wrong. There were many project ideas that looked as if they were from years ago and not something I would want to give as a gift nowadays. Project instructions were vague and assumed crafting/sewing experience. Not beginner friendly. 7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Great book

This book is very well done to all the color pictures of the projects. What I especially liked is the patterns are printed on paper and there's an attached envelop. It made it really easy to take the patterns and make copies.

This hardcover, enclosed spiral bound book includes a collection of more than 40 embroidered projects in Mary Engelbreit's signature style. Featuring a variety of embroidery, fabric applique, and colored marker techniques, the book is divided into three sections: home, baby, and gifts to give. Patterns are tucked conveniently in a pocket on the inside cover. The book invites fans of Mary's whimsical artwork to: . Stitch a tote, mobile, bib, fabric "booky", stuffed giraffe, or framed piece for baby.. Create a fabric banner, accent pillow, throw, table linens, hot pads, tea towels, and an apron for the home.. Give the perfect gift to a special friend with a sampler, hand towels, bread cloth, quilt, jewelry roll, rice filled neck roll, sewing kit, or pincushions.
