1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Awsome!By Love To Read TeeAwesome book! The previous review is very accurate. I'd just like to add this book is packed full of creativity and originality. And absolutely elegant, sophisticated, and beautiful designs. I love not being able to go in anyone else's home and see my home, and this book will definitely give you that. And the author gives you step by step instructions. Also, these projects can be adapted to your space, you can make them larger or smaller depending on what you need. Also, I think the supplies you need are reasonable for the scale and designer style projects. I think you will agree that this book is a good investment.4 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Something for the painterBy BarbaraLynChris begins her book with a brief history of how she got where she is today. Then the next two pages give general instructions on supplies, paint products, brushes, canvases, etc. It also describes painting techniques.Each design has a full color picture and all templates needed are included. The instructions give the paint palette, surfaces and other supplies needed, tools needed and then step-by-step instructions on how to create that particular design. There are shading photos that show how to create a particular flower. The projects are varied from a photo frame to a headboard and much more. The final page gives a paint conversion chart from Delta to DecoArt to Plaid depending on which paint company you are using. If you are a painter, this book should spark your interest.

Now you can do more than just paint those plain pre-stretched artist's canvases. We show you how simple and fun it is to create collages of images that are painted, textured, and stamped or stenciled. Easy, exciting enhancements make these home accents unique. Themes range from feminine flowers and fashion images to rugged cowboy creations and reflective Asian influences. 19 designs: Asian Influence (set of four, with mirrors); Cowboy (including photo frame area); Leaves (set of two); Old World Headboard (set of four); Purses (set of three canvases mounted with pretty little purses); Style (feminine set of four, featuring roses, a heart, and fashion silhouettes); and Family (set of five linked canvases).
