Manchester School of Embroidery : Needlecraft Practical Journal #28 c.1903 - Carrickmacross Lace before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Needlecraft Practical Journal #28 c.1903 - Carrickmacross Lace:

15 Pages. Carrickmacross lace is a stunning example of various forms of needle lace. The design on the cover is a necktie end made of guipure lace. Other forms of Carrickmacross lace use applique and a fine netted base to create a lace that is like no other. This book contains full instructions to creat this lace, including detailed instructions for all of the stitches, as well as stunning finished designs. A fascinating and beautiful technique!
