Peter Dormer : New Ceramics: Trends + Traditions before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised New Ceramics: Trends + Traditions:

The most popular of all the decorative arts, pottery has established itself as a modern art, form universal in its appeal and language. This presentation of ceramics worldwide has been updated to reflect the latest developments in a fast-evolving field, revealing a blend of tradition with new ideas, and spectacular use of ornament and colour. Dormer discusses the nature and roots of today's trends, and examines form and decoration in an authoritative compilation.
