Linda Baxter Lasco : Nine Patch: New Quilts from an Old Favorite before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nine Patch: New Quilts from an Old Favorite:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. I love the profiles of the quiltersBy Debra EdmondsEach year, the The New Quilts from Old Favourites finalists have their entries detailed in these books. I have all of them. I love the profiles of the quilters: showing their journey as an artist as well as the journey that conceived the profiled quilt. Always a good read as well as inspirational for quilt ideas.1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I liked the book but the quilt that I bought the ...By J. ParkerI liked the book but the quilt that I bought the book for on page 29, does not really have the pattern for it. And I wouldn't have bought it in the first place. I'll have to take it to a repro shop and have them blow up the center of the wall hanging to replicate that area. It just makes it supremely more difficult to make.

Enjoy this popular patchwork layout in 18 stunning, one-of-a-kind quilts! The National Quilt Museum's annual New Quilts from an Old Favorite contest brings out the best in creativity from today's quilters. Using the design potential of the traditional Nine-Patch as a starting point, quilters apply their own creative talents to create a one-of-a-kind quilt that best expresses their interpretation of this much-loved block. Quilters describe personal inspirations and experiences while making their quilts. See original sketches, design problems and solutions, and specific techniques utilized in the construction process. This companion volume to the contest and exhibit celebrates 22 years of quilting excellence. Other titles in this popular contest series are Orange Peel, Sunflower, Burgoyne Surrounded, Sawtooth, Rose of Sharon, Dresden Plate, Seven Sisters, Monkey Wrench, Feathered Star, Tumbling Block, Bear's Paw, Storm at Sea, Kaleidoscope, Pineapple, Mariner's Compass, Ohio Star, Log Cabin, Double Wedding Ring, Baskets, Jacob's Ladder, and Carolina Lily.

About the Author Linda Baxter Lasco came to quilting as the result of a college art project and hasn't been far from her machine since. An avid scrap-piecer and machine quilter, she has taught and lectured on both techniques for quilt guilds and at AQS quilt shows. She has been with AQS as senior editor since 2006.
