Linda Gillum, Leisure Arts : Noah's Ark for Baby (Leisure Arts #2521) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Noah's Ark for Baby (Leisure Arts #2521):

By Gaby Alvarado I bought this pamphlet because of the designs for the baby quilt, and I think that while the design itself is still very nice the coloring has not stood the test of time. To me the colors definitely look outdated, so I upgraded the colors at least 2 more tones and added red and orange to make the designs more vivid. While it did come out great (see photo of the rainbow), there are too few designs for the baby quilt, in fact only the ones shown in the front cover; and with varying sizes of the other designs it was difficult to adapt them to the many quilt blocks in the baby quilt. If I were to do it over, I would just buy a pre printed baby quilt and cross stitch that one.

This book is packed with 19 cross stitch designs of the famous boat and animal friends! Color charts and easy directions are included and the best part are all the great project ideas depicted on the front and back covers!
